A fantastic townhouse which covers 4 levels. A lovely seating area at the entrance to the house looks over the beautiful mountains. An entrance hall gives way to a large ultra modern kitchen and outside storage area. A large hatch connects the kitchen and lounge. The huge lounge has gorgeous mountain views and opens up onto the garden and terrace area with BBQ. There is a wood burner and the bathrooms have underfloor heating. Marble floors through. Each bedroom has it's own en suite. Bathrooms are spacious. The decor is stylish and to be included in the sale. Two bedrooms are located on the next floor with their own en suite bathrooms.

The highest floor has the main bedroom and en suite and a sloping ceiling and phenomenal views over the coast. Terraces adorn each level and give a feeling of spaciousness and grandeur to the whole residence. A car parking space with a metal gate and space to use as a gym or a chill out area with kitchen units and fridge on the lower level. So much storage space and a handy storage room located on the top level for if you choose to holiday let and store personal belongings.
